MOW-5: The monastery town of Sergiev Posad (7 hrs)

About 75 km north of Moscow along the road to Yaroslavl, is the small city of Sergiev Posad (called Zagorsk during the Communist era). This city grew up around the Trinity-St. Sergius Lavra Monastery, established around 1340 by St. Sergius of Radonezh. This monastery has been the single most important spiritual center in Russia for well over 600 years, and today is a working monastery, Seminary, Theological Academy and place of pilgrimage. Visiting the monastery enables a person to experience its lively spiritual environment, filled with history, icons, architecture and relics of the saints. Visitors can view many magnificent examples of architecture, icons and decorative arts from the early 15th to the 20th centuries, located in the churches, in the Seminary/Academy's Museum of Icons, and the State Museum of Arts and History located on the monastery grounds.

Tour includes: English speaking guide, transport from/to the accommodation in Moscow and entrances. Lunch can be ordered in advance for 16 EUR per person.

Best period: All year

Prices per person: 1 person: 264 EUR; 2-3 persons: 136 EUR; 4-6 persons: 83 EUR
